FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Integrity Commission Submits Investigation Report and Director of Corruption Prosecution's Indicative Ruling to Parliament for Tabling

September 11, 2023 – In a media release which it issued on July 5, 2023, the Integrity Commission advised as follows:

“That, at its regular monthly meeting which was convened on Monday, July 4, 2023, a decision was taken that, going forward, in the interest of transparency, the public will be notified once the Commission sends an Investigation Report to Parliament for tabling. This will be done via a formal Media Release.”

In keeping with its commitment, the Commission now wishes to advise that it has, today, submitted to Parliament, a Report of Investigation and an associated Indicative Ruling of its Director of Corruption Prosecution.

The documents were formally received and signed for at the Parliament at 10:05 a.m.

Hard copies of the referenced Investigation Report were submitted in separate envelopes, under cover of identical letters, addressed to the following officials:

- (1) Hon. Marisa Dalrymple-Philibert, CD, MP, Speaker of the House of Representatives
- (2) Most Hon. Juliet Holness, MP, Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives
- (3) Senator the Hon. Tom Tavares-Finson, OJ, CD, KC, JP, President of the Senate
- (4) Ms. Valrie Curtis, CD, BH (M), JP, Clerk to the Houses of Parliament

The Indicative Ruling, which is embodied in a second and separate letter, was also similarly submitted. A USB Flash Drive, with PDF electronic copies of all documentation submitted, was also conveyed.

The Integrity Commission anticipates that its Investigation Report and Indicative Ruling will be tabled in both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible, and that the Indicative Ruling will be read out into the records of Parliament.
